The Phoenix: 1985-1986

Hello, and welcome to the Phoenix. In the next 95 pages, we intend to never let you forget your stay at Lincoln-West High School. The staff has collected and compiled things that we thought would want to be remembered. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this wonderful year as we saw it!

Editors Notes

This book was compiled by a talented group of people who truly believe in the power of words and pictures, and the impact on feelings and attitudes they can have.

Here is an example that I felt would fit; The author of this quotation is unknown. "There's a special kind of freedom friends enjoy. Freedom to share innermost thoughts to ask a favor, to show their true feelings. The freedom to simply be themselves."

I would like to thank Dawn Braun, and Joy Ford for their cooperation, time and help. Special thanks go out to Mr. Cole (Slim) for his help with the photography. Without these people this book could not have been possible.

I hope that you enjoy this book as much as we, the staff do. With this, I say good luck to you all in the future, and "See Ya In 10 Years"

RAY BLAKE
Co-Editor

As we graduate from Lincoln-West, we must remember that the past has taught us much, and the future will teach us even more. Time has passed, and history has been made, and we have marked this time with our achievements and the efforts we have made.

May you constantly be reminded through this book of the activities and school functions of 1985-86 as told in these words and pictures.

May the school spirit continue to be an everlasting stream of hope and joy

Co-Editor

"Where We've Been . . .

Principal's Message

Too often, like Gatsby, we tend to spend so much of our lives "in between time"; a foot in the past, a glance to the future. Others will say, sometimes cynically, that there are really only two good places—where we've been and where we're going.

I would like to think that somehow your years at Lincoln-West High School provided a striking three-year moment where, in a sense, time stood still, clocks froze, past and future blended somehow, but only to heighten the bittersweet things one lives through at that time, in that place. If we, the faculty, and you, our graduates, have touched each other, even slightly, with a little sentiment and a bit of intellect and a lot of wisdom, then all of our lives are ever so enriched by just having known one another. As you leave high school, remember that we expect you to make the world and your place in it what they ought to be.

Fondly and with best wishes always,
H. Jerome Crittendon
Principal

ALABAMA

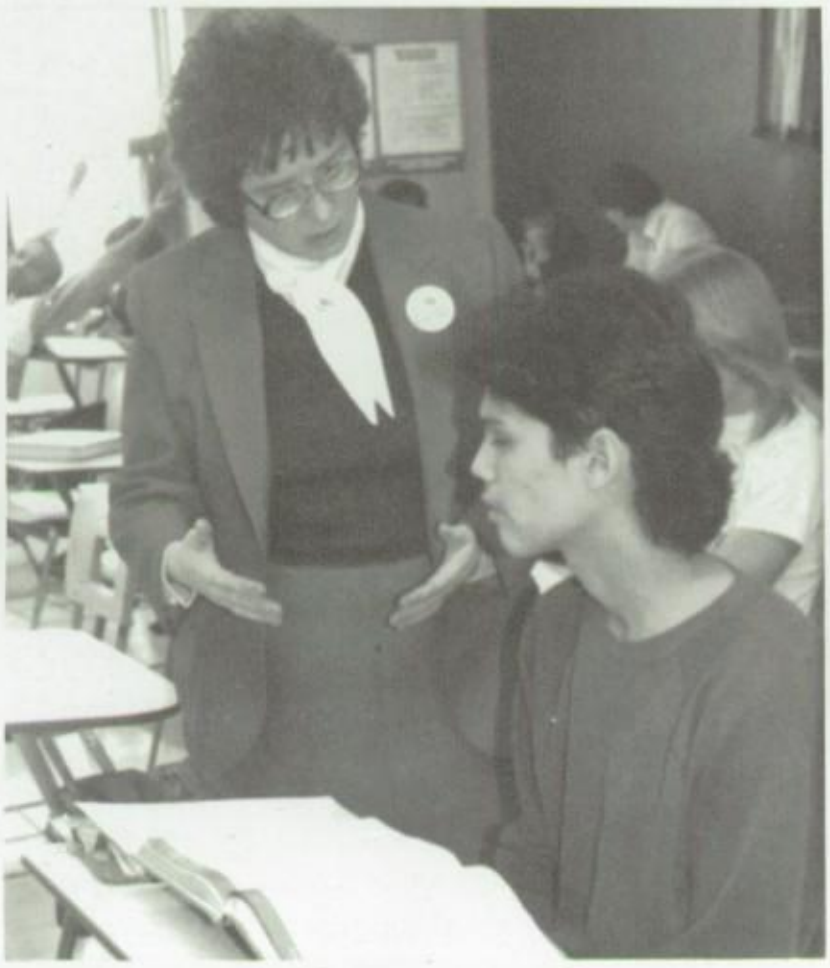
Basic Skills of English

English teaches the vital skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. By studying English, students develop the basic skills necessary for school, jobs, and everyday life.

Think is also a part of English where students learn to analyze and evaluate various problems by applying them to different reading selections.

Writing skills are being improved by the elective course, Foundations of Writing, offered to 12th graders.

Mrs. Bratton teaches A.P. English with style.

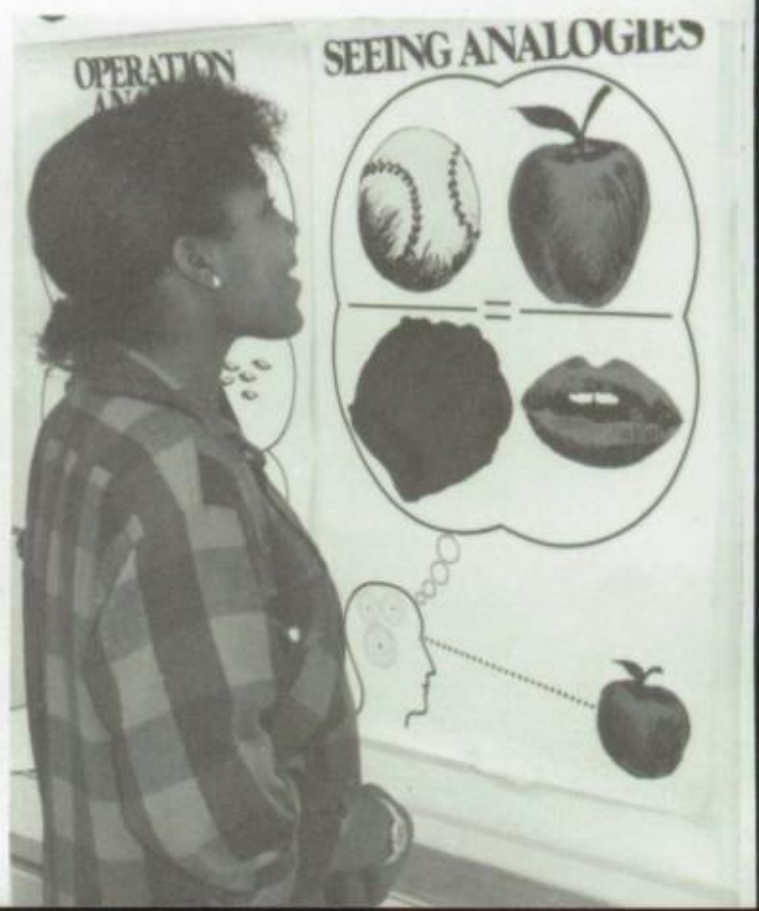


Miss Goll stresses her point.

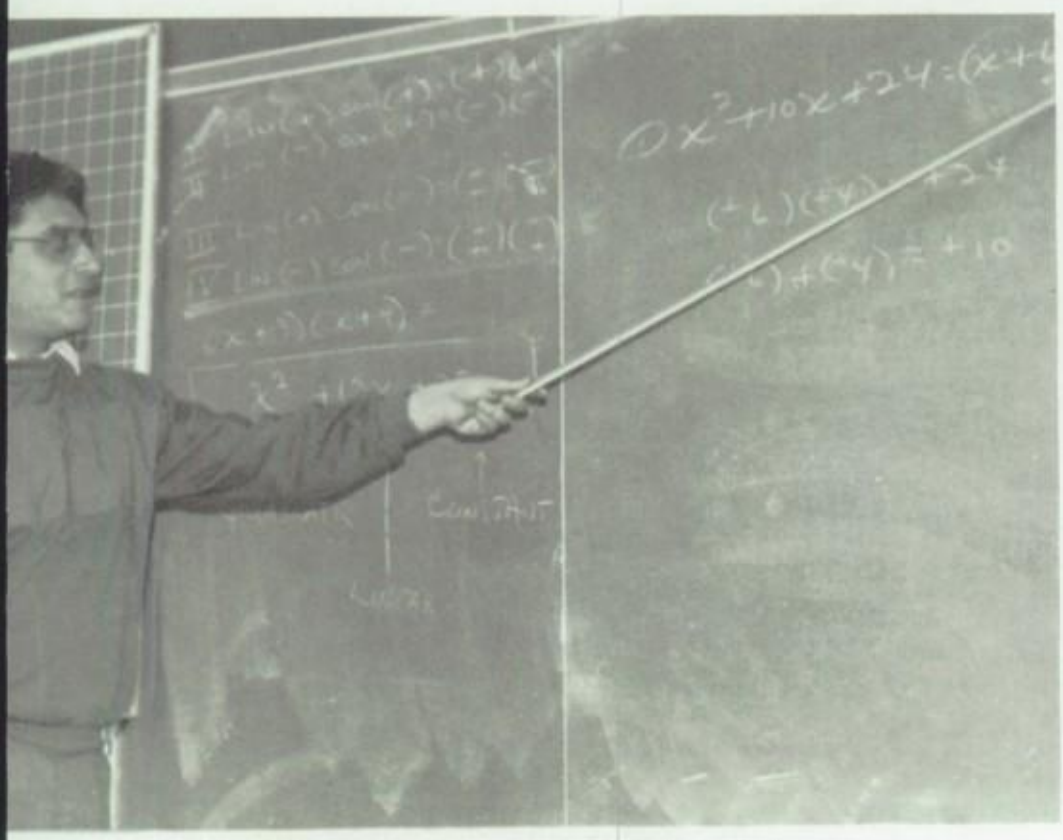
Learlene Kellogg practices Communication Skills.

Mr. Surnegie takes his students to the library.

Seeing Analogies is a part of Think.

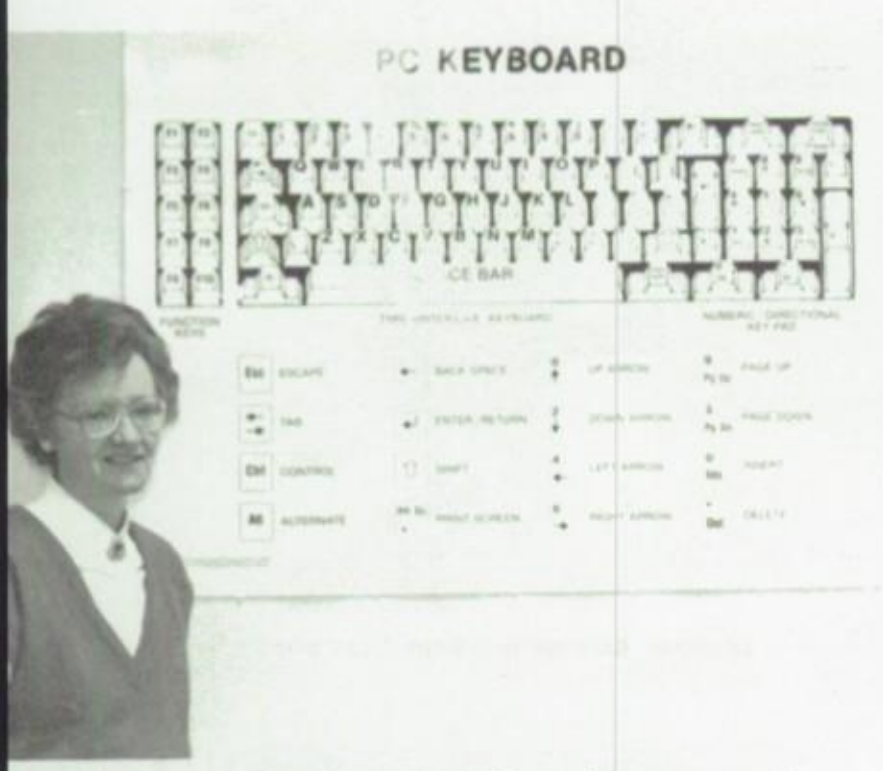


From Basics to "BASIC"



Mr. Zukerman teaches the principles of Algebra.

An IBM Personal Computer and disc drive.



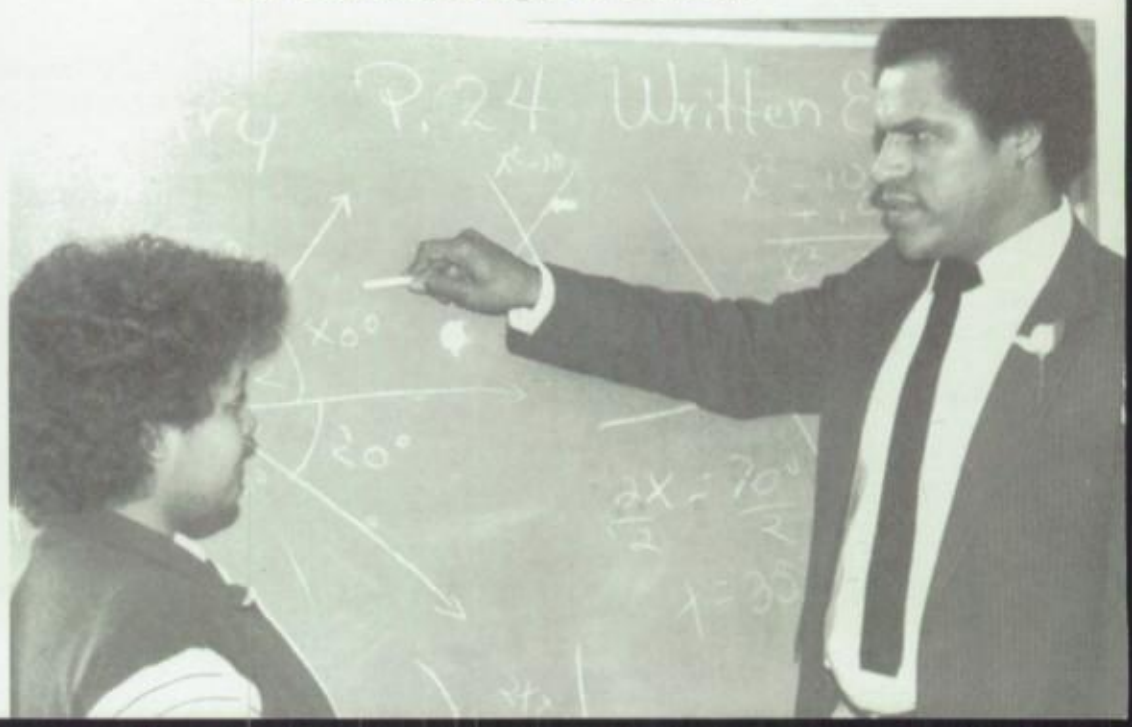
Miss Leser teaches Computer Science for one semester.

The Math Department at Lincoln-West helps to satisfy the immediate needs of the student and prepares them for a rapidly changing technological society.

Courses include the basics of Business Math through Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, and A.P. Calculus.

The newest feature at Lincoln-West is the Computer Science class. The program began last spring and is taught for one semester. It teaches the student how to use BASIC programming. Miss Leser, department chairperson teaches the class. Lincoln-West has a total of 20 IBM PC's.

Mr. Ortiz reviews angles in Geometry.



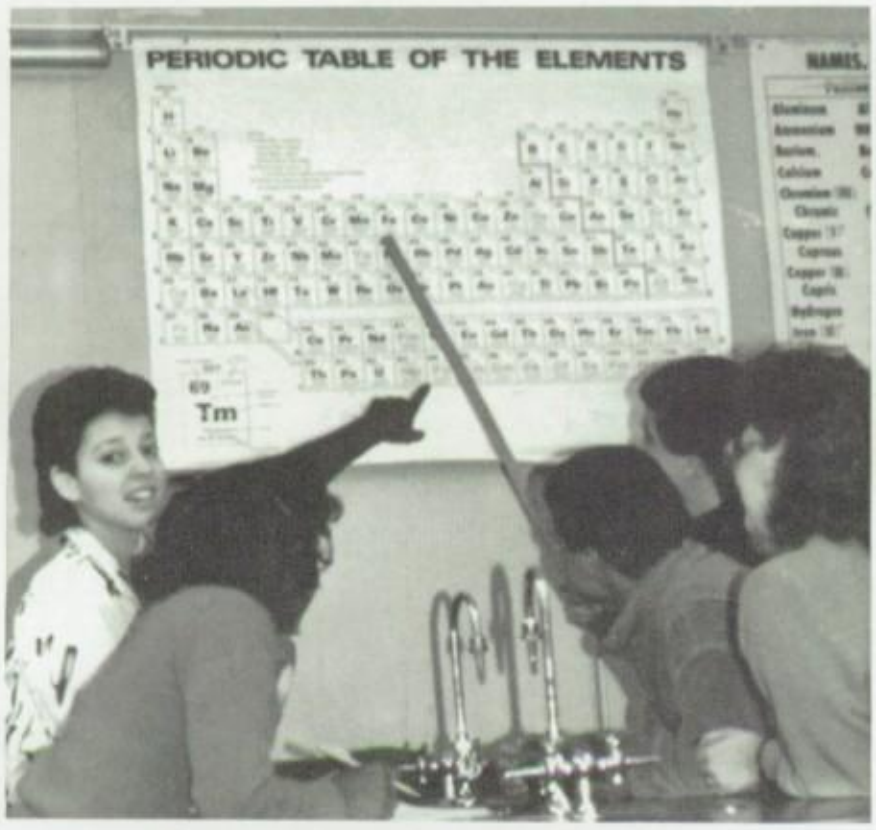
Science Opens New Doors

Physics can be difficult—but it's fun.

Visit a science class at Lincoln-West and you will find beakers, jars, test tubes, microscopes, and periodic charts. These are just some of the tools used to study the plant, animal and chemical life found on our planet.

Through experimentation, students are shown how new approaches in science can lead to a better way of life for all mankind.

Courses include Physical and Environmental Science, Biology, Chemistry and Physics. There is an A.P. Biology class for college bound seniors.

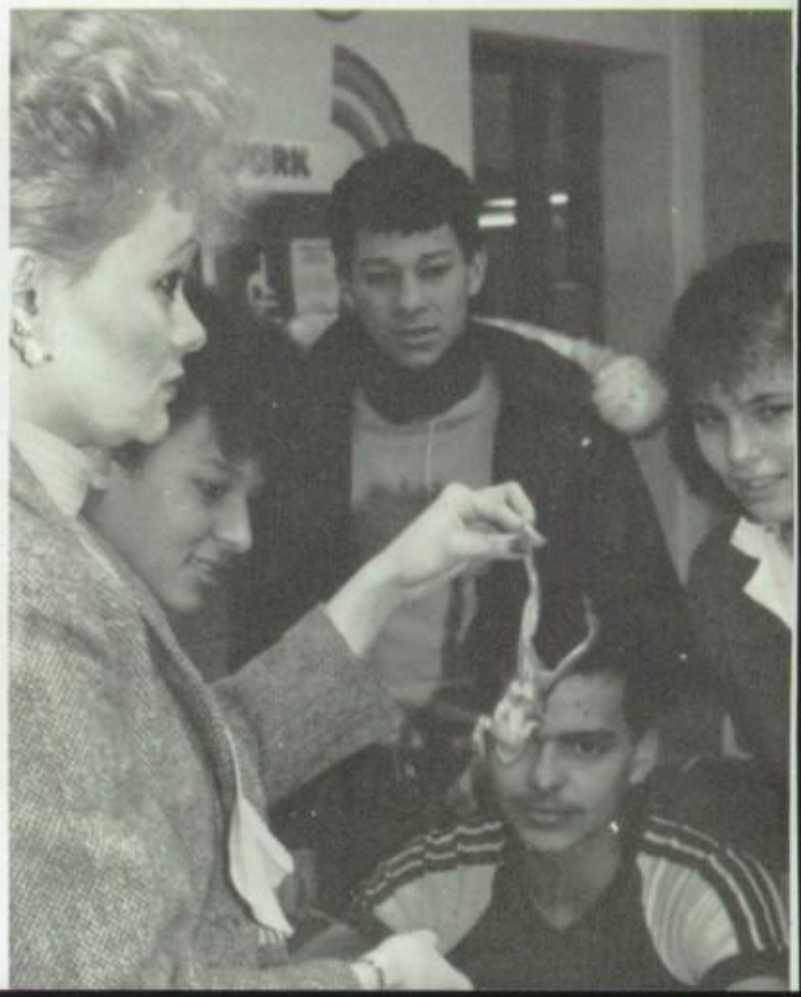


Students discover the table of elements.

The fascination of the root!!

Chemistry labs have interesting results.

Miss Alicea enthusiastically shows dissection.



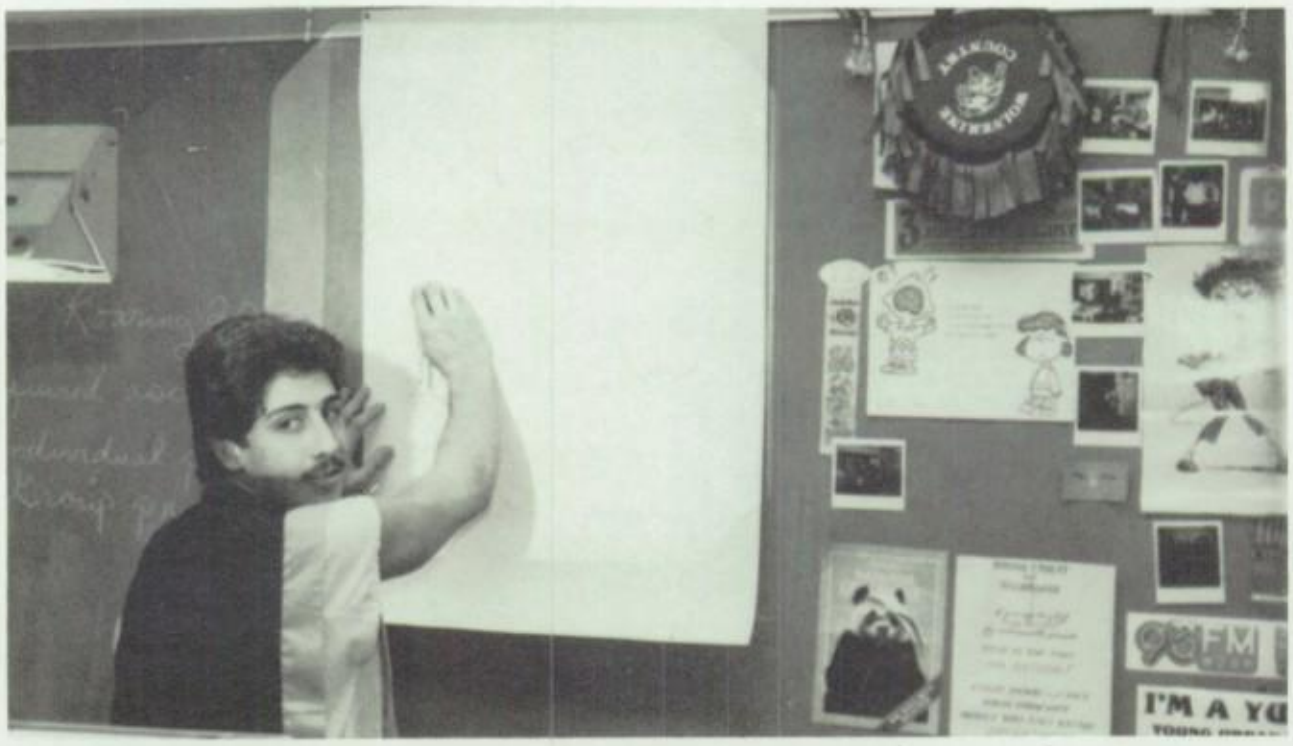
Past, Present, Future.

Social Studies helps us to learn more about the world and the people in it. It is here that we look at the past and present events that either directly or indirectly affect us.

And it is here that we examine all of the political, social, and economic forces at work in this and other countries which will shape our future as a nation.

Courses include World, American, and Black History, Economics, American Gov't, Street Law and Geography.

Examining the world around us.



Black History is a big subject at Lincoln-West.

Elias Maroun studies the "Roaring Twenties".

Passport to the World

Mrs. Dumdum teaches Spanish for Spanish Speakers.

French I students learn the basics of the language.

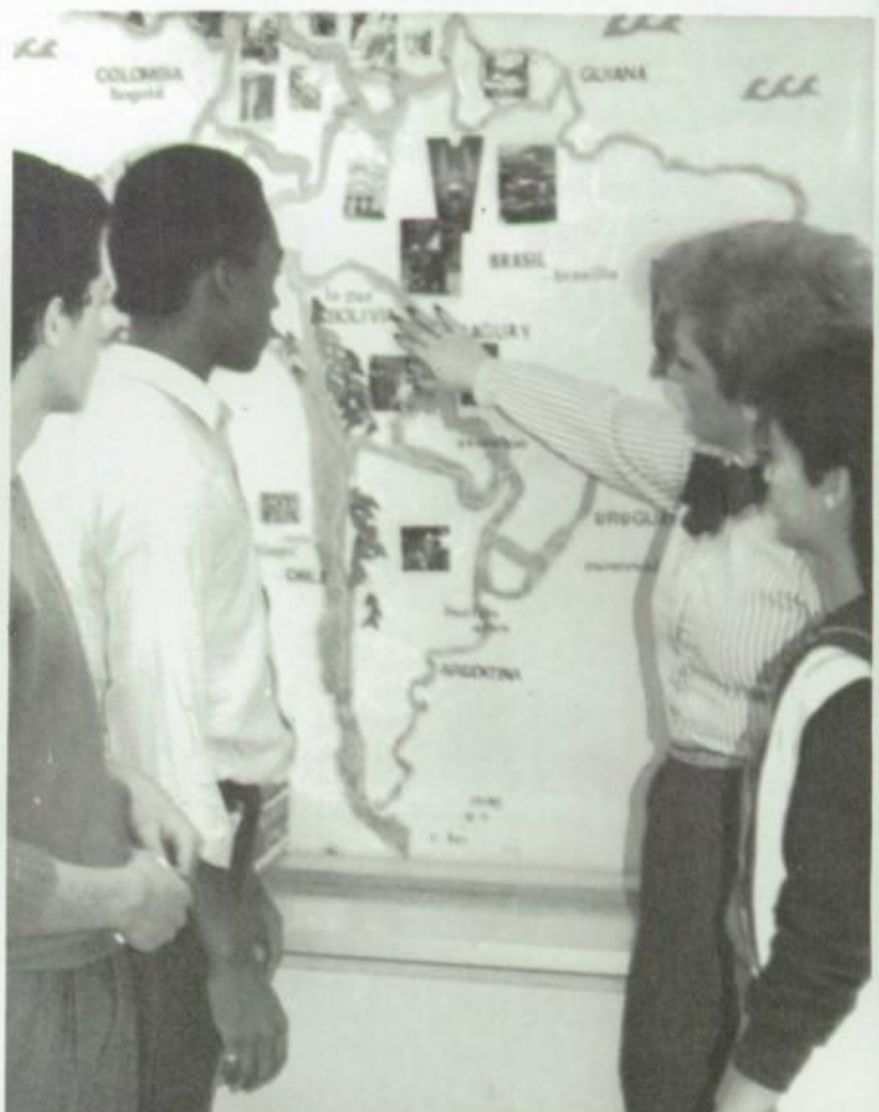
One of the many advantages of learning a foreign language is that students have an opportunity to learn about people in other countries. It is wise to know and understand the language, customs, and culture of other nations, in todays complex world.

Students can study either French, or Spanish from beginning to advanced levels. Spanish for spanish speakers is also taught.

Elias Maroun practices the "superlatif".

French IV & V students work on grammar.

Sra. Dolan points out Bolivia on the map.



Strong Bodies—and Minds

Calisthenics is a daily routine.

Coach "Bump" Taylor

Struggling through push-ups.

Keeping physically fit at Lincoln-West is a fun experience. After calisthenics, students can take part in a variety of activities, including badmitton, floor hockey, basketball, football, track, softball, soccer and swimming. They also learn about nutrition, disease, first aid, and family living in one semester Health classes.

These classes are designed to develop the students mind as well as body.

Basketball is most popular.

You almost made it!!

Homemaking Skills

Home Economics provides a variety of courses designed to make you a better homemaker.

These include Food Service, Comprehensive Home Economics, Independent Life, Home Nursing, Child Care, Advanced Clothing, Foods and Nutrition.

These skills can be used in the home or on the job presently or in the future.

Let's whip up something quick for lunch.

Sewing with Singer.

Precision is important.

Sewing is an important skill to learn.

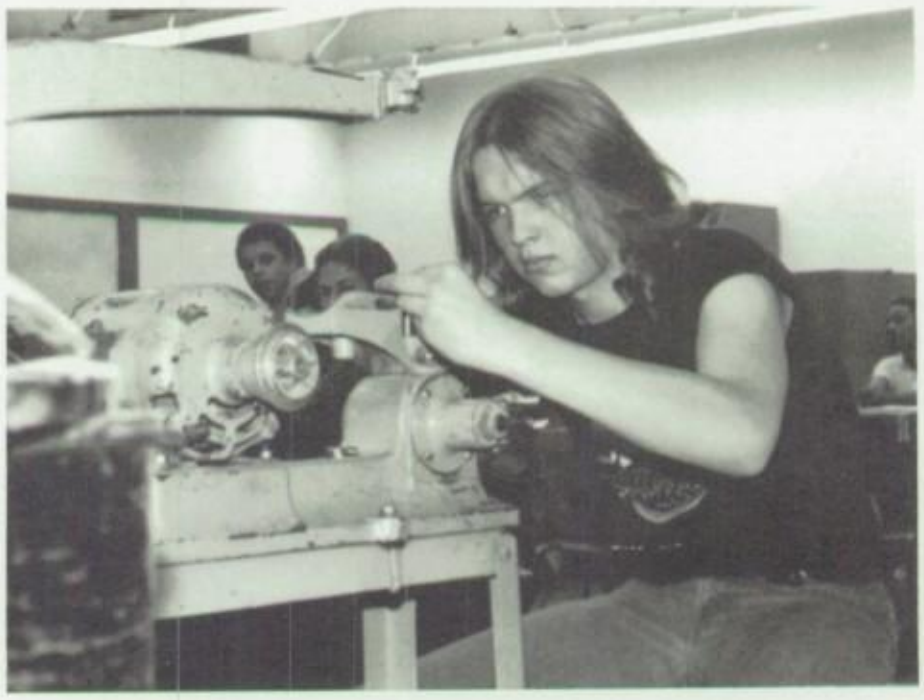
Mrs. Hill keeps an eye on her cooking class.

Skills That Count

Fascination with electronics.

Safety is a must in Industrial Arts.

Industrial Arts student repairs equipment.



Courses in Industrial Arts are designed to provide students with the training they will need in job-related areas such as electronics, woodworking, printing, drafting and graphic arts.

Lincoln-West also teaches a Vocational Electronics course. The class meets three hours a day. Mr. Collier teaches this course.

Mr. Rice demonstrates the use of machinery.

Woodworking takes time—and patience.

Freedom of Expression

True to life pictures are a common scene.

The Art Dept. at Lincoln-West offers a variety of courses in which students can learn to express their creative talent.

These include painting, drawing, sculpting, pottery, poster making, art appreciation, art history, and design.

Students learn to use their hands to make art something they can personally appreciate.

Sculpture and pottery take a great deal of patience.

Mr. Martin takes time with his students to lend a hand.

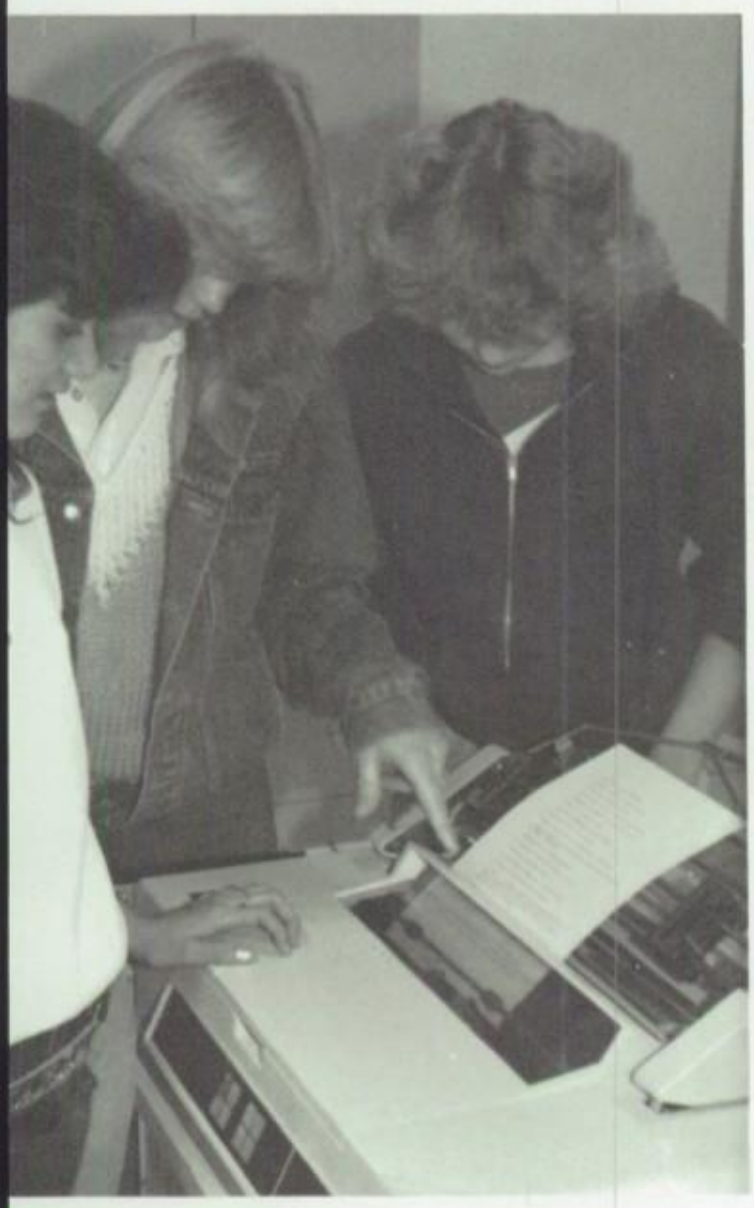
Poster art has become a favorite.

Taking Care of Business

Mrs. Prevost watches over a COE student.

Learning basic office skills.

Students come in contact with business machines.



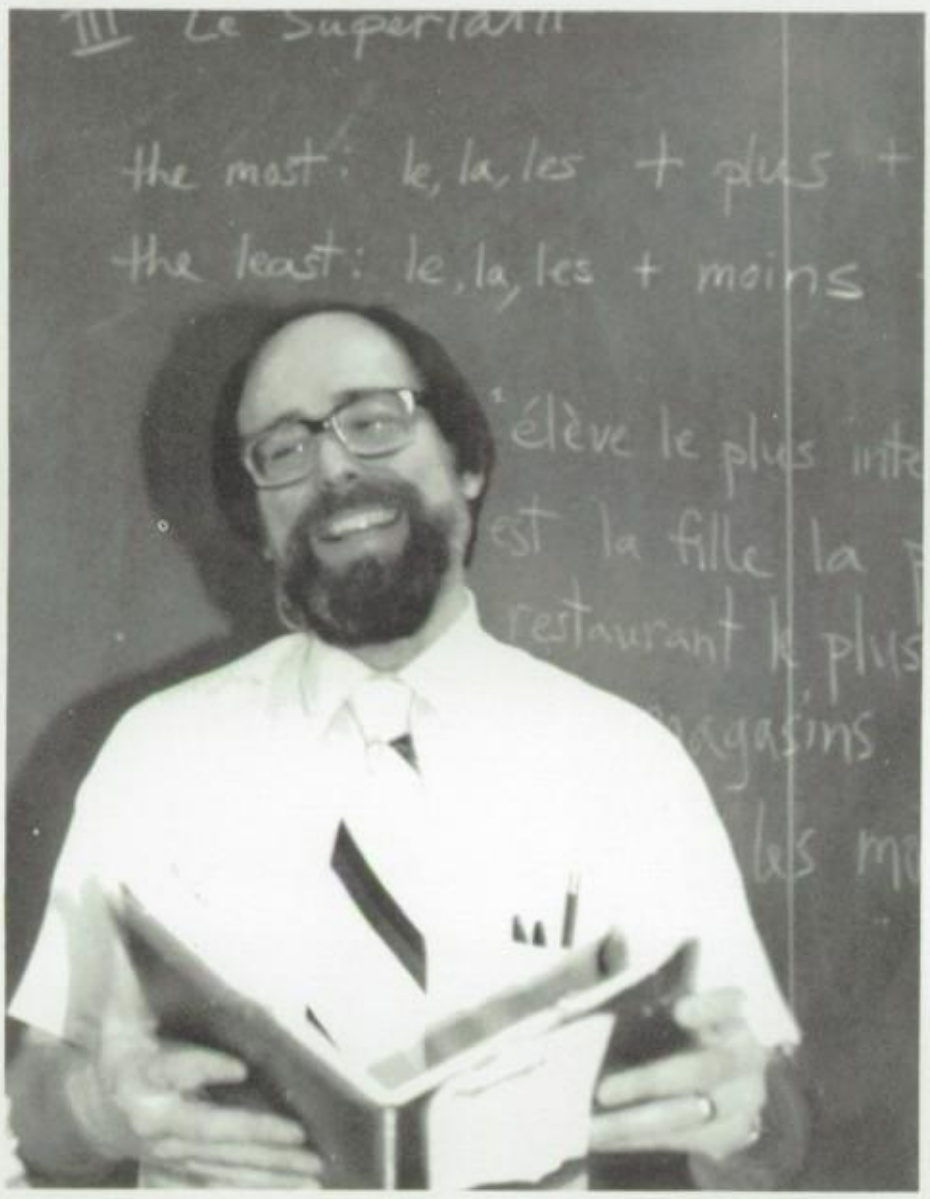
Getting a job in an office as a secretary, typist, or bookkeeper is no easy task these days. Employers expect you to have some basic skills.

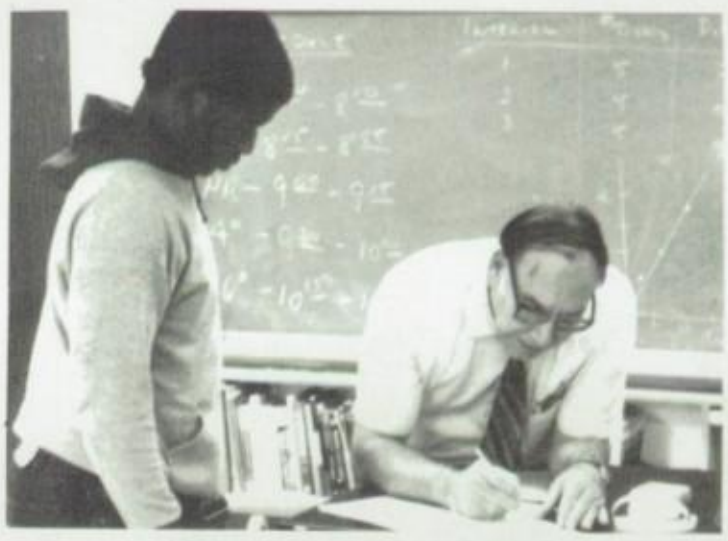
The Business Dept. at Lincoln-West provides this training with courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and accounting.

Lincoln-West also offers Cooperative Office Education (COE). This program enables students to attend school a half a day and work the other half using their office skills.

Typing is a business world essential.

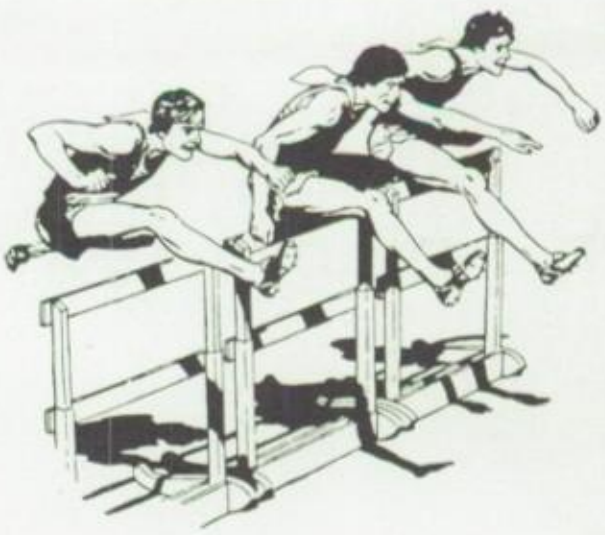
Study, Study, Study!!





Lincoln-West Sports Family

Through the years, here at Lincoln-West, sports teams have lead and kept our spirit. WE as students and faculty have supported them through good times and bad. We take this time to recognize and congratulate all the young men and women who participated. We thank you for a job well done and being a part of Lincoln-West history.



Junior Varsity Football

Let's Go Defense!

The Junior Varsity Team was all but pleased with their play this year but they went into every game thinking that they could win. There is real talent on this J.V. Team, and with more hard work and training, they should do well in the 86-87 season.

The J.V. Team is coached by Mr. Nabinger and Mr. Collier.

Lincoln-West wins first in 17 games

COMPILED FROM STAFF REPORTS

Long-suffering Lincoln-West High ended a 17-game losing streak by outlasting West Tech, 12-6, in double overtime at JFK Field yesterday.

Running back James Brown, who gained 97 yards, clinched the Senate Conference victory with a 16-yard touchdown run.

Lincoln-West took a 6-0 lead in the second quarter on John Boyd's one-yard plunge. Tech's Stanley Jackson sent the game into overtime with a 65-yard scoring run in the third period.

DEFENSE! DEFENSE!

Go Ed!

The Mini-Wolves had a disappointing season this year by not accomplishing what they had set out to do. But they vow to come back and "win it all" next year! Their teamwork on and off the court keeps their spirits high, and they don't let their losses get them down.

With this kind of attitude and work, they will have what it will take to make them number one!

L-W Super-Spirit

The Lincoln-West Varsity Basketball Team surprised us all with quick, and dominating victories in the first half of the 85-86 season.

Things slowed down in the second half of the year, and the Wolverines slid from first to third place in just one game. With this they saw the North Senate Championship move out of reach.

Coach David Herbster has to be happy with the performance by his varsity men, because they have proven that they can win when given the chance.

Girls Basketball

This years girls basketball team coached by Miss Palumbo was not what they had hoped for it to be, but they were able to keep their heads high. They had the fire and intense play that makes a team a champion, but lost most of their games in the final seconds. The Lady Wolverines had their best year as a team, with help from everyone in critical times, this was enough to please Miss P.

ACTIVITIES

New Look for an Old Book

Publishing a high school yearbook like the Phoenix takes time, patience and a lot of hard work.

First comes the overall plan to figure out what will go where in the book. Then the pictures have to be taken and the stories, captions and headlines written. Finally, all of this has to come together, page by page, section by section.

This year's staff was headed by Joy Ford and Ray Blake, who, individually and collectively, made all the big decisions and took most of the pictures.

Other major contributors were Dawn Braun, who put together the section on academics, and Cindy Dutton, who helped write much of the copy. Lourdes Negron had the big job of organizing the Junior and Sophomore sections. Jackie Hanna was a contributing photographer. Their advisor was Mr. Piskos.

By-lines and Deadlines

Below Right: Planning their next issue of the Freedom Rider were Mary Cathy, Ricky Simms, Philip Smith and Lisa Williams.

Freedom Rider, the student newspaper, published six issues this year. Included were stories about student activities, articles on sports and editorials.

Members of the staff attended the National Scholastic Press Assn. convention at the Bond Court Hotel and then toured the PLAIN DEALER to see how a big city newspaper is put together.

This year's co-editors were Albert Crowder and Ricky Simms, assisted by Lesvia Cruz, Lisa Williams, Mary Cathy, Susan Ocasio, Michael Jeffries, Lisa Carter, Candic McCants and members of Mr. Mossbruger's word processing class who typed the stories. Mrs. Rubin is advisor to the newspaper.

Student Council

Promoting school spirit can be a monumental task at any high school—just ask a member of Student Council.

It's their job to publicize student sponsored activities at Lincoln-West during the year. This is done by homeroom representatives who encourage the students in their homeroom to take an active part in upcoming events, whether it be a social affair or the collection of food for the needy.

This also provides a good opportunity for an exchange of ideas between the Council and members of the student body, according to Mrs. Dolan, the group's advisor.

This year's officers were Victoria Glover, president; Joy Ford, vice president; Shawn James, secretary; Tahana Kent, treasurer; Frank Diaz, social chairperson and Eric Conwell, sergeant-at-arms.

Student Council Officers for 1985-86 were Shawn James, Tahana Kent, Eric Conwell, Joy Ford and Vickie Glover. (Frank Diaz is not shown).

Mrs. A. Dolan

Culture Clubs

The Cross Cultural Club helps students to understand, appreciate and become aware of lifestyle of people from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds.

Members take part in a variety of activities, such as listening to speakers, watching movies and participating in Student Exchange Day when they meet with members from other schools to talk about their accomplishments.

Heading the group are Phillip Prince, president; Denise Woodard, vice-president; Yvette Clemons, secretary; Sonia Morales, vice-secretary; Phillip Curtain, treasurer and Rosaline Ray, vice-treasurer.

The advisors are Mrs. H. Hernandez and Mrs. E.M. Giles.

The Latin Cultures Club is a branch of the Cross Cultural Club. Its purpose is to encourage members to improve their knowledge of the Spanish language, culture and traditions.

Members assist and take part in the preparation of a Thanksgiving basket for the needy, a Christmas party, Ethnic Day, a seniors' party and field trips. These activities are funded through car washes, raffles, candy and bake sales.

The officers are Lourdes Negron, president; Eliezer Rodriguez and Fanny De Jesus, vice-president; Donna Padilla, secretary and Jeanette Cruz, treasurer. Mrs. H. Hernandez is the advisor.

School Dances

One of the many highlights of the school year were the dances sponsored by the different clubs and organization at Lincoln-West.

All of this required a lot of preparation and planning by the groups involved. These are scenes from some of those dances. Recognize anyone?

Students Visit Pen-Pals

Arriving home happy!

Students from Miss Goll's 11th grade Honors English class had a rare treat in November. They were able to visit their pen-pals in Field High School in Mogadore, Ohio, where they had an opportunity to attend classes and see first-hand what a typical, rural high school really is like.

Wanda Cruz, one of the 15 students from Lincoln-West that made the trip had this observation:

"Students at Field High School have a positive attitude about their education and take pride in their school."

The trip was part of an exchange program sponsored by High Schools for the Future of which Lincoln-West and Field High Schools are a part, and was arranged by Mr. John Perrin of the Career Education Department.

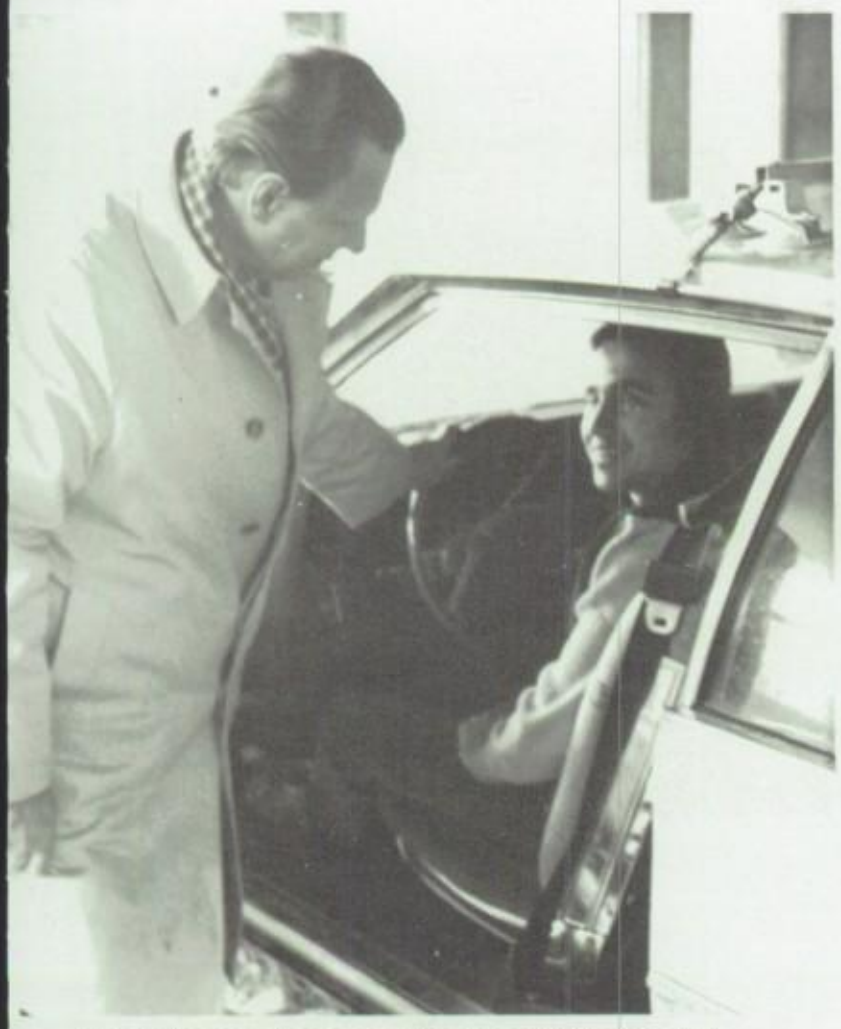
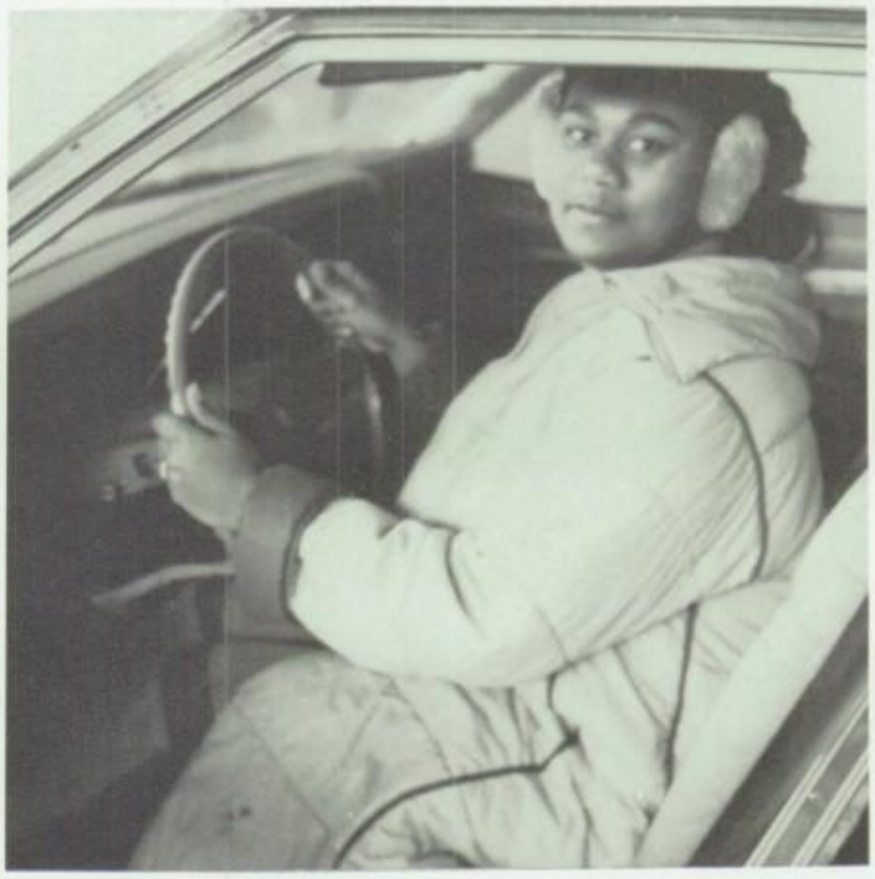
Drivers Hit the Road



Mr. Zebrowski instructs his students in the car.



Marti Morris gets set to drive.

One of the most popular classes at any high school is drivers education. At Lincoln-West, students that take this class are required to spend time in both the classroom and on the road. Behind the wheel, the students learn how to drive on the city streets as well as on the freeway.

In the classroom, the students learn about defense driving and the signs and laws that govern the road. After this training the students are certified to drive in the state of Ohio. The instructors are Mrs. Spencer and Mr. Zebroski.

Mrs. Spencer stresses safety in the classroom.

Competitive Spirit is High

Albert Johnson, Pam Uffman, John Neal, George Galinovsky, and Darrell Price.

The Orthopedically Handicapped program at Lincoln-West is set up to stress academic development as well as independent living, plus they are offered a variety of vocational skills.

The students here are able to function with as much independence as possible, both at home, and on the job. The classes are the same, the minds work the same way, these are the things that make us the same.

Looking on, Albert Johnson picks up the loose ball.

Darrell Price shoots from the line, as James Barkas and Chris Shepherd look on.

Homecoming '85

"The Best is Yet to Come" was the theme of this year's gala homecoming.

The cafeteria was transformed into a luxurious ballroom where all the festivities took place, including the crowning of the King and Queen, Vernon Taylor and Millie Roman.

The runner-up couples who graced the occasion with their presence included Sean Hardnick and Wanda Medina, first runner-up; Carlos Santana and Learlene Kellogg, second runner-up; Brian Markham and Delsie Cain, third runner-up and Ricky Barnett and Martina Quinones, fourth runner-up.

The event was sponsored by Student Council.

Senior

Even after a disappointing football season, the seniors maintained a spirit of pride and enthusiasm for Lincoln-West. With a combination of good natured optimism and just plain-old silliness, the seniors continued to support the mighty Wolverines and remembered that Lincoln-West will always be NUMBER ONE!!

Oh, the Memories

Balloons Anyone?

The memories made during our Senior Year are the ones that we will carry with us forever. The good times and friendships made our days at Lincoln-West all the better. All of us will go our separate ways but the memories of the Class of '86 will live on!!

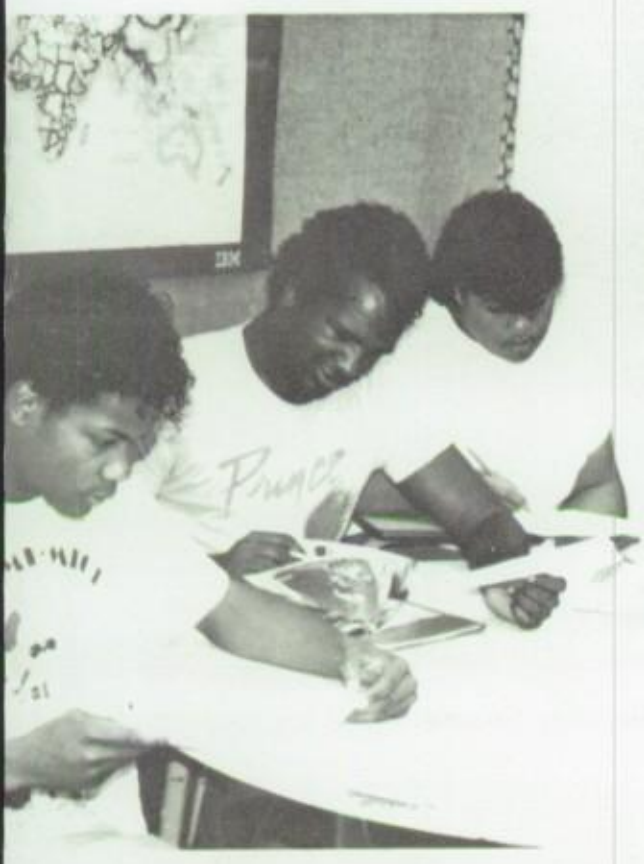
Serious Side of Seniors



Along with all of the fun and games, the seniors spent plenty of time with school work and studying. They worked hard to keep up their grades even though most were involved in some kind of activity, from basketball to Student Council. The seniors proved it is possible to achieve your goals while having a good time.

Congratulations to the Class of '86 for a job well done!

Senior

On Feb. 7th, the Class Of '86 celebrated the last home basketball game of the season, with a Senior Spotlight Dance.

All of the seniors dressed in their senior sweats, painters caps, and Spotlight pins. The dance was held in the 3rd Floor Cafeteria which was decorated in red, white, and blue "L-W Seniors" balloons and crepe paper. Pizza, punch, and cake was served.

The perfect end to a perfect dance was The Mighty Wolverines triumph over the John Hay Hornets with a victory of 70-60.

The Seniors proved that "Lincoln-West cannot exist, without the Class of '86."

Class Officers

The 1986 Senior Class Officers worked hard during the course of the year to raise funds for the Senior Class and plan activities.

They sold buttons, raffle tickets, cards, and pizza to raise money. They also held a Ghostbusters, a Spring Fling, and a Senior Spotlight Dance. All proceeds benefitted the Class of '86.

Prom, After Prom, Cedar Point and Geauga Lake also had to be planned. There were dues to be collected, orders to be placed, meetings to attend, shirts to distribute and dates to be set. The Officers put a lot of time and energy into making 1986 the best year ever, but they had a lot of fun doing it.

The Senior Class Advisor was Mrs. Martha Basile.

Becoming a member of the National Honor Society at Lincoln-West is no easy task. Members must have a 3.4 grade point average or better, and must exhibit qualities of leadership, service and character.

Seniors wear red, white and blue stoles at commencement to distinguish them from the other graduates. New members are inducted in May.

The officers are Tara Armer, president; Sharonne Ayers, vice-president; Dawn Braun, secretary and Gene Johnson, treasurer. Other members were Emily Adorno, Tonia Grant, Tracy Miner, Darrell Price, Martina Quinones and Rita Sheers. Their advisor is Mrs. B. Bratton.

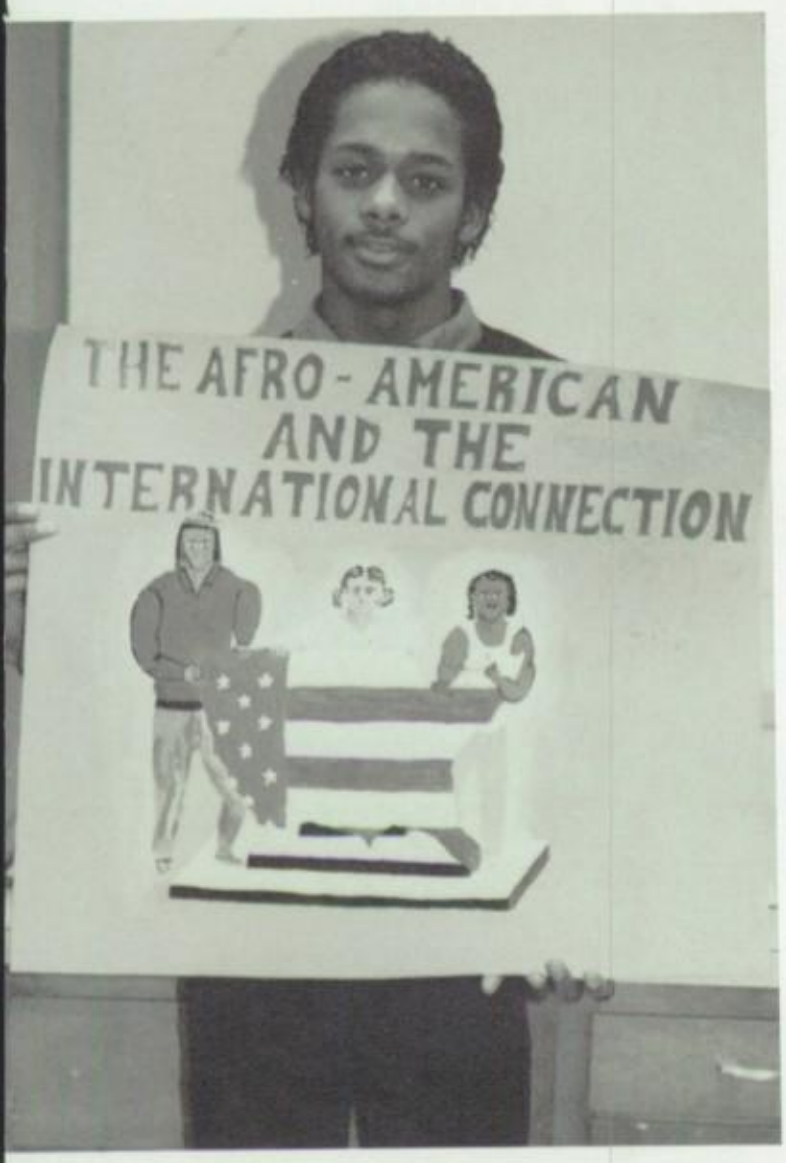
Right to Read

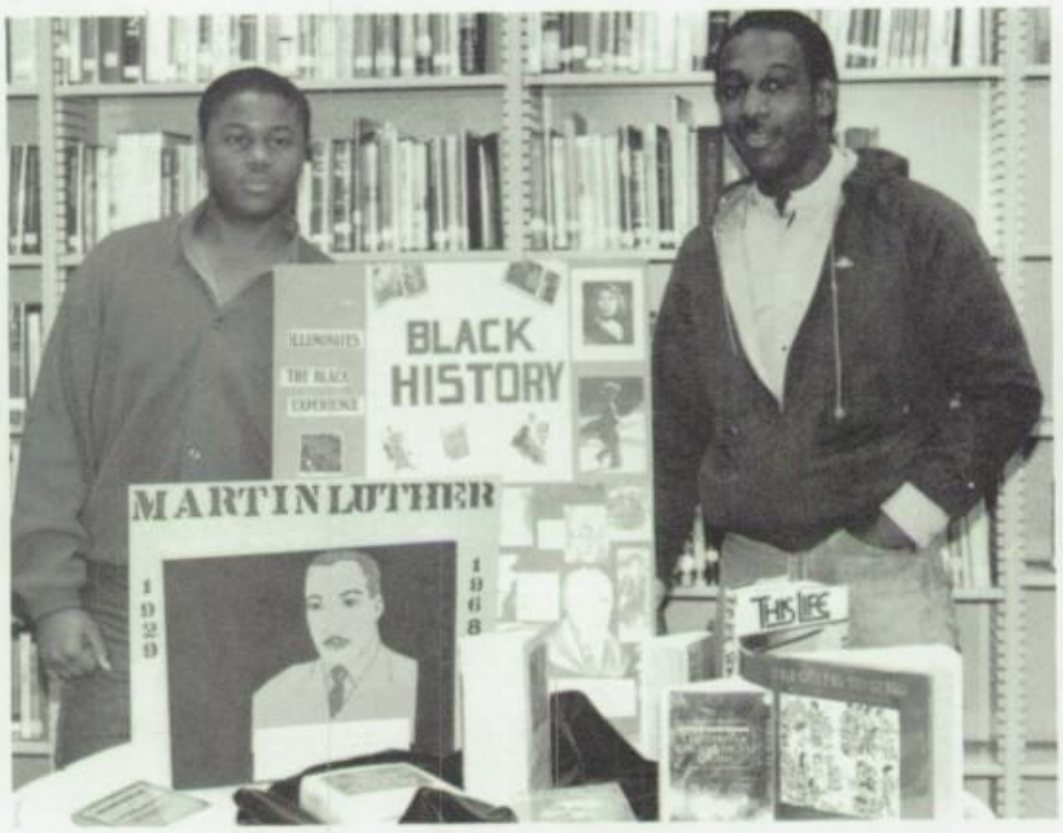
The Right-to-Read Program at Lincoln-West is designed to encourage students to become interested in reading. The program took place in March during Student Motivation Month.

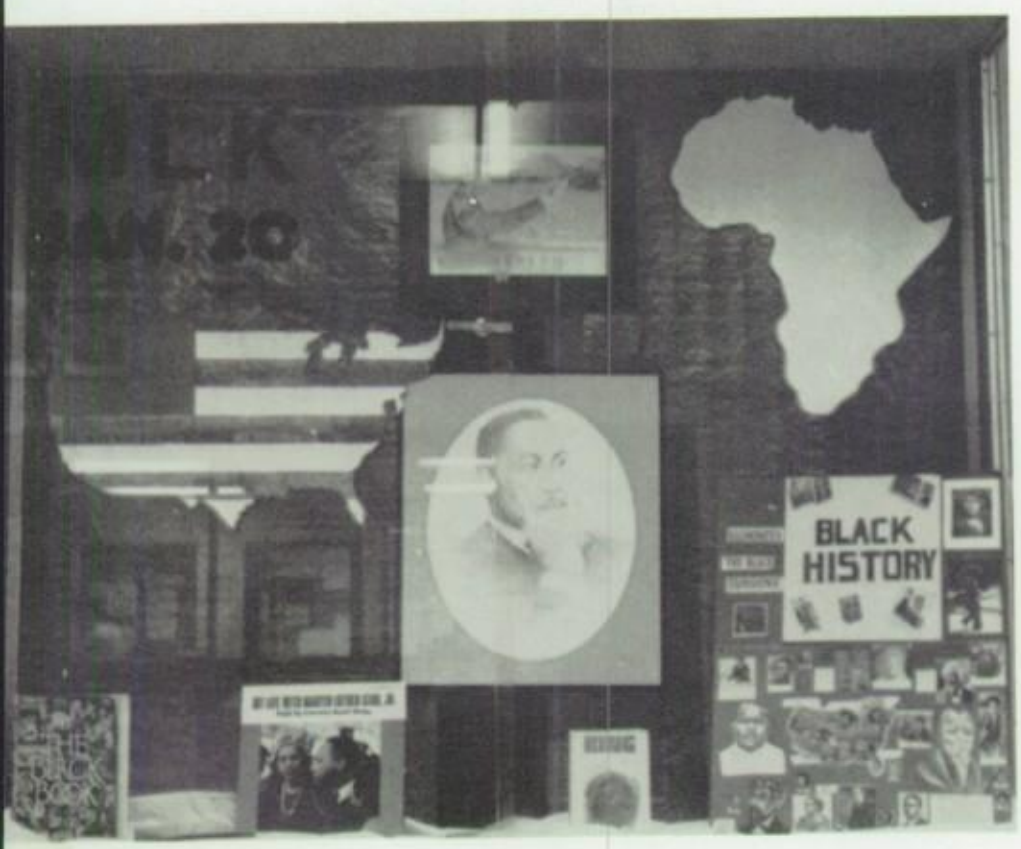
The Right-to-Read Committee sponsored a poster contest, a spelling bee and a book fair. Prizes and trophies were awarded for the best entries. The Committee did everything possible to assure that the program was a success, according to Gené Johnson, Chairperson.

The Right-to-Read Committee consisted of Mrs. C. Thomas, Mrs. Webb, Mr. Lenderskis, Mr. Cole, Ms. Boozer, Mrs. Yashi, Mr. Crittendon, Mr. Meilander, Mr. Bradley, Mrs. Basile, Mrs. Barruso, Mr. MossBruger, Mr. Martin, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Rivera, Mrs. C. Shelton, Mrs. Cuadro, Millie Roman, Gené Johnson, Albert Crowder, Dawn Braun, Ray Blake.

Dedication and Excellence







Lincoln-West observed National Black History Month during February with a variety of activities and contests.

Among these were the Art-Essay Contest, supervised by Mrs. Danik, and the Black History "Guess Who" contest.

Three students from Lincoln-West attended the Black History Superbowl Selection Match sponsored by the Cleveland Board of Education. They were Gene Johnson, Ricky Simms and Charles Whitlock.

Lincoln-West we sing thy praise,
To you our highest hopes we raise.

Let us pledge our loyalty,
United, strong, victorious be.

Leading through the years ahead,
With the blue, and white, and red.

We will always do our best
To honor Cleveland Lincoln-West

Fight Song

GO! Onward Wolverines and FIGHT!! FIGHT!! With all your might to WIN!! WIN!! for Lincoln-West,
Let's Go, Fight, and Win!

GO!! We're behind you team,
So FIGHT till we reign supreme,
And WIN for the honor of the red, white and blue!

1986 Phoenix Dedication

Class of 1986

In the past, yearbooks have been dedicated to someone, for some special reason. This person has usually had an impact on the school as a whole.

This year is just a little different. The Phoenix is not being dedicated to one person, it is being dedicated to the entire Class of 1986. This book is for all of the seniors who have finally made it to the top.

Together we have struggled and breezed through many classes. We have cheered on many victories and faced many defeats. We have shared our hopes, fears, and dreams within these four walls. We've had our share of successes and failures, of trying our best and doing our worst. We've beared the criticism and accepted the praise. We've done all of this together, with each others help and friendship.

We're finally closing these doors behind us and opening new ones in front of us. We will all go our seperate ways, live our seperate lives, dream our seperate dreams, but we will always have the memories. No one can take those from us.

Through the tears that we will cry because of the end, let us also smile for the beginning of our future.

For all the Class of '86 has done at Lincoln-West, and the hard work and effort put forth, this book is well-deserved. CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS!!! May all of your dreams come true.

Class of 1986

Thoughts to Live by . . .

"There are those who pass like ships in the night.

Who meet for a moment, then sail out of sight with never a backward glance of regret; folks we know briefly then quickly forget.

Then there are friends who sail together through quiet waters and stormy weather helping each other through joy and through strife.

And they are the kind who give meaning to life."

"Fear not that thy life shall come to an end, but rather fear that it shall never have a beginning."

Cardinal Newman

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

Reinhold Niebuhr

"People rarely succeed at anything unless they have fun doing it."

"I cannot change yesterday. I can only make the most of today, and look with hope toward tomorrow."

"I expect to pass through life but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do to any fellow being, let me do it now, as I shall not pass this way again."

William Penn

"Common sense is the knack of seeing things as they are, and doing things as they ought to be done."

Stowe

"I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know; the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve."

Dr. Albert Schweitzer

"The hardest thing to learn in life is which bridge to cross and which to burn."

David Russell

"No objects of value... are worth risking the priceless experience of waking up one more day."

Jack Smith

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."

"May you always find new roads to travel; new horizons to explore; new dreams to call your own."

. . . and Leave by.

The End is Near . . .

farewell
it doesn't seem so long ago that we first started here but now the final days have come the end is drawing near the commencement of our adult lives is so close at hand

the hours of our childhood slipped away like grains of sand and as we watch each other walk across the stage

we remember all of the good times and the friends that we have made it seems so hard to say goodbye to go our separate ways

but we'll always have the memories of our Lincoln-West days

—Dawn Braun
